NHS England are pleased to announce a new multi-professional resource for clinicians considering becoming a DPP and employers and system leaders aiming to support DPP capacity in their workforce, particularly the pharmacy workforce.

The resource consists of a suite of web pages, frameworks, real-life examples and Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs). It also includes information for prospective DPPs from professions other than pharmacy, wishing to support a pharmacist IP learner.

The resource aims to reduce barriers to the DPP role by ensuring those eligible understand the role, its expectations and where to find advice and training. Primary Care Manager career development

NHS England is pleased to announce that a primary care manager career development framework has now been published and is live on the Practice and PCN support FutureNHS workspace (sign up required).

The largest and most established profession in primary care management is the practice manager, and there is a growing recognition of the need to diversify the primary care management workforce to ensure the role of practice manager is realistic and sustainable.

This framework should be used as guidance and a mechanism for enhancing current offers and identifying the current gaps that could make the difference to supporting primary care managers. It includes information on pathways, skills, and training and development options for early, established, and late career managers.

Find the framework attached in the email.

2) Tier 2 is for those patients with more established LTCs but responding well to interventions. The target workforce for T2 webinars is main grade clinicians – GPs, nurses, pharmacists and other Allied Health Professionals.

3) Tier 3 is for those patients with complex conditions or those not responding to/complying with interventions. The target workforce for these webinars is senior clinicians – GPs and advanced clinical practitioners.
